DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Taplan (6,032,662), which shows all of the claimed limitations. Taplan shows

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.

4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
6. Claims 8-11 and 36-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Taplan (6,032,662) in view of Rice (4,869,231).
 - a. Taplan discloses substantially all of the claimed limitations including, among other things, a cook top 1, a burner box (see at least figs. 2, 3, and 5 – the area between elements 1 and 3), supply tube 19, a resilient metal force members 4,7,8,15,18, attaching member 5,6,10, and a bracket 2 for attaching the unit to the frame 12. Nevertheless, Taplan does not specifically recite that “the cooktop is movable while connected to the burner box.”
 - b. Rice teaches a cooktop and burner box arrangement in which the cooktop is hingedly attached to and moveable with relation to the burner box in order to permit access for cleanup (see at least col. 1, lines 9-19).

Art Unit: 3749

c. Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to incorporate the hinge arrangement taught by Rice into the invention disclosed by Taplan, so as to permit access for cleanup.

7. Claims 12-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Taplan (6,032,662), which discloses substantially all of the claimed limitations. Taplan does not specifically recite the claimed rear or front positioning, a spark igniter, 2 to 4 burners, a venturi tube, a pressure regulator, a gas valve, a cooking grate, or steel as the metal for the force member. Nevertheless, Official Notice is given that the claimed rear or front positioning, a spark igniter, 2 to 4 burners, a venturi tube, a pressure regulator, a gas valve, a cooking grate, or steel as the metal for the force member are all notoriously old and well known in the art. Such arrangements have clear and obvious and notoriously well known benefits. Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to incorporate the above elements into the invention disclosed by Taplan, so as to provide for well known benefits.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicants' arguments with regard to the rejected claimshave been considered, but are deemed moot in view of the new grounds for rejection.
